Hartsville, S. C., December 12th, 1926.

I hereby certify that on the above date and at the above mentioned place I ordained as Deacons the following persons: Wm. H. Brown, Samuel L. Falk, Arthur Jamison, Samuel J. Jamison, Samuel F. Johnson, Henry C. Nelson, John Norwood and Wilson C. Singletary.

Also assisted by several Elders I ordained the following named Elders: Rufus E. Bethea, Clarence F. Ferguson, Monnie L. Green, Samuel Jackson and George W. McCleary.

All this was done in accordance with action taken by the South Carolina Conference.

E. G. RICHARDSON, Bishop.

The increase of vice and crime, the disintegration of the home by legal and illegal separation of husband and wife by the destruction of life and property through the carelessness and recklessness in operating private and public carriers, the clamor for liberty and license upon the sale and unlimited use of alcoholic stimulants, are danger signals to our civilization which should be characterized by peace, prosperity, happiness, and righteousness.

The recent educational awakening and the consequent crowding of our universities, colleges and professional schools presage an approaching lack of facilities to admit all applicants. Exclusion will of course, begin with the Negro. These conditions emphasize the necessity of standardizing and expanding colleges for Negroes.

Christian education is the only hope for the perpetuation, purification and refinement of our civilization.

The illiteracy of the Negro in South Carolina, his educational facilities, the exceedingly small number in our colleges, stress the fact that we must begin an educational campaign for the higher education, standardize and expand the colleges we have and make them efficient for scholarship and Consecrated Christian Workers in every activity of life.

The Christian College is a permanent activity of all denominations. Our church in this State can not grow in power and influence and successfully extend the Kingdom of God unless we have a standard college for training our own Christian leaders. We must keep pace with other denominations not only as a matter of pride and honor, but as a challenge to duty, privilege and civilization.

In view of these facts enumerated we, the South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in session assembled, adopt the following Endowment and Expansion Plan for Claflin College for 1927:

Resolved, That this Conference endorse the raising of $250,000 for the endowment and expansion of Claflin University.

Resolved second, that all lay members of our Church in this State be apportioned one dollar per year until the whole amount is secured.

This resolution by the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in lawful meeting assembled at Hartsville, S. C., this month of December, 1926, witnesseth:

Whereas, on the third day of November, 1867 a certain lot of land in the city of Orangeburg, State of South Carolina, was conveyed to Geo. Williams, and others, as trustees, to be used as a place of divine worship, subject to the authority and declarations of the general conference and this annual conference,

And whereas, subsequently, in or about the year 1877 the said lot was taken over and used by Trinity M. E. Church, and has since that time been in the control and charge of the trustees of the said Trinity Church.

And whereas, the said trustees of Trinity church aforesaid, in accordance with due resolution of the quarterly conference made on the 19th day of October, 1926, and by authority of the said resolution, entered into an agreement for the sale of the said lot.

And whereas, it seems necessary, in order to remove a cloud from the legal title of the said lot by having this conference assist in removing all uncertainty in regards to the said lot of land,

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in regular and lawful conference assembled at Hartsville, S. C., in this month of December, 1926, that the trustees of Trinity M. E. Church, Orangeburg, S. C., be and are hereby appointed as the trustees of this conference, and are hereby empowered with all necessary authority to alienate the right, title and interest, if any, now held by this Conference in and to that certain lot or parcel of land in the said city of Orangeburg, on the corner of Amelia and Pitthan streets, which property is, and has been, in the control of the said trustees of the said Trinity Church:

That the said trustees be, and hereby are, Further empowered to execute any other instruments in the nature of quitclaim or disclaimer that may be deemed necessary in order to remove any and all clouds now existing upon the title to the said lot of land by reason of any failure of the said Geo. Williams, and others, Trustees, or that for any reason exist as hereinabove mentioned, so that, when the said trustees execute any deed of conveyance to the said property, in accordance with the resolution of the quarterly conference, hereinabove referred to, all right, title and interest of this annual conference shall pass under and by virtue of their act and deed as trustees of the district and as the special trustees of this annual conference.

Be it further resolved, That the said special trustees be not required to report back to this conference any of their doings by virtue of this resolution.

WORLD SERVICE AND APPORTIONED BENEVO-LENCES.

Hardly could there be inaugurated a plan more suitable for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom on earth than the World Service of the Methodist Episcopal Church. There are several things among our colored group that must be done in order to make the plan successful.

Our people must be taught and trained in the method of systematic sacrifice and giving. The importance of Stewardship must be stressed and tithing must be practiced more generally by a larger number of our people.

Weekly offerings must be made and monthly reports to the Treasurer, Dr. O. W. Auman, No. 40 Rush St., Chicago, Ill., must be made.

Resolved, therefore, That we enter heartily into the plan of the church for an every member canvass by May 31st, and that we see to it that our reports increase noticeably over the reports for last year, not only for World Service, but for all the apportioned Benevolences.

Respectfully submitted,

F. W. ANTHONY,

For the Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH AND THE NATION.

Bishop and Brethren: We, your Committee on the State of the Church and the Nation, wish to make our report.

Even the most casual observers of conditions within the church and the nation will be compelled to admit that there is much to be desired. Despite the fact that our country is among the richest in the world in natural resources, and while we take pleasure in the fact, conceded by all the nations of the world, that we have more money than any other nation, still, the economic condition in our country is far from satisfactory. In some sections, especially in the South, conditions are really distressing. There seem not to be money enough for anything. On every hand is heard the cry for money; money for business, money for churches, money for schools. This condition is causing a state of unrest and discontentment that is seen on every side.

Another condition that is far from encouraging is the prevalence of lawlessness and crime. In spite of all the agencies for the suppression of crime and the promotion of good citizenship, crime is on the increase. We seem to be in the midst of a veritable crime wave, and murder and mob rule is the order of the day. And the commission of crime is not confined to the poor and ignorant, the rich and the educated are conspicuously among the law breakers of the land.

In religion there is a growing tendency towards indifference. Some have broken from their moorings and are drifting perilously near the rocks of unbelief. When we can hear from the lips of a preacher occupying the pulpit of a great metropolitan church, that "The Christian's God is dying;" when we can read of a society in one of our larger colleges, known as the Society of Damned Souls; when we read from the pen of a prominent writer, that preaching does more harm than good, and from another that there is no potency in prayer, then we know that there is something radically wrong with the religious thinking of some great minds, as well as many smaller minds of today.

But what do we hear in the midst of these conditions? We hear a voice crying out. It is the voice of many thousands, yet it is as a single voice. It is the voice of the grand old Methodist Episcopal Church crying out in protest against lawlessness, crime and oppression; crying out against ignorance and sin. We feel and know that the Methodist Episcopal Church is one of the potent remedial agencies that will ultimately bring about a change in the unhealthy political, moral and spiritual condition of the nation and the church. With its program of Christian education, with its program of temperance and morality, and with its program of evangelism the nation shall be made happier and better.

We thank God for the consecrated ministers of the South Carolina Conference. We thank God for our own Bishop Ernest G. Richardson, a bishop who believes that an angel did roll the stone from the door of the sepulcher, and that Jesus did come forth from the grave; a bishop who proclaims himself to be a fundamentalist in the fundamental teachings of the Bible.

We thank God for Doctor and Mrs. Dunton, for Claflin and Doctor Randolph. With Claflin expanded, standardized and endowed, and sending out our young men and women with superior educational equipment to occupy our pulpits, run our schools and build up the home life, we predict a bright future for the church in South Carolina.

Respectfully submitted,

B. F. BRADFORD,
For the Committee.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We, your committee, beg leave to submit the following report:

The American Bible Society is doing untold good by publishing Bibles, Testaments and other regular religious literature for the advancement of the cause of Christianity.

And whereas, Since Holy writ is our spiritual guide from earth to Heaven,

And whereas, We are taught the ways and means of Salvation from sin by the Holy Bible,

Be it Resolved, That we urge our people generally to use books from this society and that we, as members, take a collection for this cause on each charge.

Respectfully,

W. F. SMITH,
For the Committee.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

Whereas, the Methodist Episcopal Church has always stood for the highest education possible for our youth; and

Whereas, to show by example as well as by precept her sincerity in this matter; before the smoke had cleared from the battle fields of the Civil War which granted freedom to the black man, this grand old church to which we belong sent consecrated men and women to this South Land with the Bible in one hand and the spelling book in the other to teach the ex-slave about God and to lead them from the darkness of sin and ignorance into the light of the gospel of Jesus Christ. And,

Whereas, Claflin College was established by the church at Orangeburg for the higher education of our people, and for many years was maintained by it. And

Whereas, there is now an urging demand for the standardization and classification of all the schools of the land.

Whereas, We as members of the South Carolina Conference are exceedingly anxious that Dear old Claflin, our Conference School that has stood so long as the leading institution of learning in South Carolina for Methodist youth, be retained as one of the colleges of the church with all the necessary equipments and emoluments for the same. Therefore,

Be it Resolved, That we as a conference stand solidly behind every movement that is put forth for its retention and advancement as well as its perpetuation.

Resolved again: That we carry out the conference resolution to raise the endowment, and not only pledge but give to Dr. L. M. Dunton all the encouragement and support he needs for the successful accomplishment of the same, and to Dr. J. B. Randolph who is now at the helm all the brain material that he needs to make the school what we all desire so much for it to be.

THE WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Among the great and indispensable agencies of the Methodist Episcopal Church is the Woman's Home Missionary Society. For many decades this factor, fostered by the great hearted women of the Methodism has manifested increasing interest in training the worthy youth of the nation, especially females for larger and important spheres in life. Her millions have been collected and disbursed in a wise and motherly way through the connection.

From year to year her usefulness has broadened. We therefore call upon old and young to lend an unselfish hand of moral and financial aid to this worthy movement that has stood the test of ages.

Respectfully submitted,
W. M. HANNA,
For the Committee.
